EXPLANATIONS

The following records of births, marriages and deaths include all entries to be found in the books of record kept by the town clerks; in the church records; in the returns made to the Salem Quarterly Court; in the cemetery inscriptions; and in private records found in family Bibles, etc. These records are printed in a condensed form in which every essential particular has been preserved. All duplication of the town clerks' record has been eliminated, but differences in entry and other explanatory matter appear in brackets. Parentheses are used when they occur in the original record; also to indicate the maiden name of a married woman.

When places other than Amesbury and Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy. Marriages and intentions of marriage are printed under the names of both parties. Double-dating is used in the months of January, February and March, prior to 1752, whenever it appears in the original, and also, whenever from the sequence of entry in the original the date may be easily determined. In all records the original spelling of names is followed and in the alphabetical arrangement the various forms should be examined, as items about the same family may be found under different spellings.

As Amesbury and Salisbury have been so closely connected, both socially and geographically, it will be desirable to examine the records of both towns when making researches.

The town records covering the period from 1666 to 1686 are now missing.

AMESBURY

The territory comprising the present town of Amesbury was originally a part of Salisbury. On May 23, 1666, "Salisbury-new-town" was granted the privileges of a town, and May 27, 1668 the name was changed to Amesbury. In the Massachusetts Bay Colony records the name is entered as "Emesbury."

May 12, 1675, just and full bounds were allowed to Amesbury.

On Mar. 15, 1844, part of Salisbury, called "Little Salisbury," was annexed.

Apr. 11, 1876, part of the town was established as Merrimac.

July 1, 1886, part of Salisbury was annexed.

The population of Amesbury at different periods was as follows:

1765, 1,567.	1810, 1,890.	1850, 3,143.
1776, 1,795.	1820, 1,956.	1890, 9,798.
1790, 1,801.	1830, 2,445.	1900, 9,473.
1800, 1,757.	1840, 2,471.	1910, 9,894.
